

What's Happening

- May 21st is World Day for Cultural Diversity for Dialogue and Development. This day celebrates the richness of the world's cultures and the essential role of intercultural dialogue for achieving peace and sustainable development. The United Nations General Assembly first declared this World Day in 2002.
- On May 5th, President Biden announced Karine Jean-Pierre has been promoted to be Assistant to the President and White House Press Secretary, making her the first-ever Black and first openly gay person to serve as White House Press Secretary.

Let's Recognize

- May is AAPI Heritage Month. Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month recognizes the contributions and influence of Asian Americans and Pacific Islander Americans to the history, culture, and achievements of the United States.
- May is also Mental Health Awareness Month. Established in 1949, Mental Health Awareness Month seeks to highlight the importance of mental health and wellness, and reduce the stigma around receiving mental health support. Stronger Together joins the national movement to raise awareness and support around mental health.

Spirit Day Recommendations

A reminder that every Katz Media employee has one Spirit Day—an 8-hour day that can be used for volunteer work at a charity or non-profit organization. Visit <https://www.nami.org> for ways you can use your Spirit Day this May for Mental Health Awareness Month.

Staff Spotlight: Joey Gangi

Joey Gangi started his career at Katz Atlanta in 2004 after a few years in Savannah, Georgia working at a TV station. During his interview with Katz, he had a feeling that it this was the right place for him. Joey has been with Katz 18 years since, and is still as thankful and proud to be part of the Katz family as the day he started. Joey appreciates the opportunity to work with talented coworkers and says it guides him and pushes him to grow in our business.
